<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Sort school library books, so that they are easily accessible and labelled correctly for ease of use. Observe reading time carousels – look for ways to improve/share good practise Ensure daily readers are being listened to – monitor progress made. Promote and monitor group reading (offer resources/ideas etc) Ensure ‘Tric a chlic’ teaching follows children into Year 5 and continues in Year 3 & 4. Introduce ‘Tric a chlic’ to children who are ready in Year 2 during the Summer Term. Offer/provide training for Year 2 & 3 teachers on the delivery of ‘Tric a chlic’ if needed. As a result of the above actions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Children will have a better understanding of texts. They will begin to grasp the structure of sentence patterns in how stories or information are presented. Children’s fluency and confidence will increase. Children will be exposed to a variety of words and phrases. Which will help expand their vocabulary and language comprehension. By being exposed to different words repeatedly, they children will be more likely to learn correct spelling patterns. Children’s writing will improve from exposure to different writing styles and structures which will help them with their own writing, improving their ideas and organisation. Welsh is a phonetic language, so learning to read in Welsh reinforces phonetic awareness, which can improve reading skills in both Welsh and English Children will gain a sense of pride in the Welsh language and in its cultural history. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Miss Nicholas AoLE Leader Criw Iath PVG PVG Meetings ADDS Meetings Phase Meetings 1 to 1 staff meeting Questionnaires LLC Booklet 	Review 1 November Review 2 March Review 3 July	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Listening to learners.
