

LO: To solve word problems involving doubling and halving

Doubling and Halving

1. On Tuesday, the elves made 12 presents. On Wednesday they made double that. How many presents did they make on Wednesday?
2. There were usually 10 staff working in Llangyfelach shop at Christmas time, but after Christmas that was halved. How many staff were there after Christmas time?
3. William had 8 toys to write on his Christmas list. George had double. How many toys did George have to write?
4. The baker had 6 orders for Christmas cakes on Friday. On Saturday, he had half that amount. How many orders did he have on Saturday?
5. One week, the toy factory employed 13 workers. By the next week, the amount of people working there had doubled. How many were working in the factory by the second week?
6. One week there were 6 ice skating injuries at Winter Wonderland. The next week there were double that amount. How many injuries were there the second week?
7. There were 15 children in the choir, but at Christmas time there was double. How many were in the choir at Christmas time?
8. There were 18 chocolates in the box but after Christmas there were only half that amount left. How many were left?