

How might we catch diseases?

Made by darcy

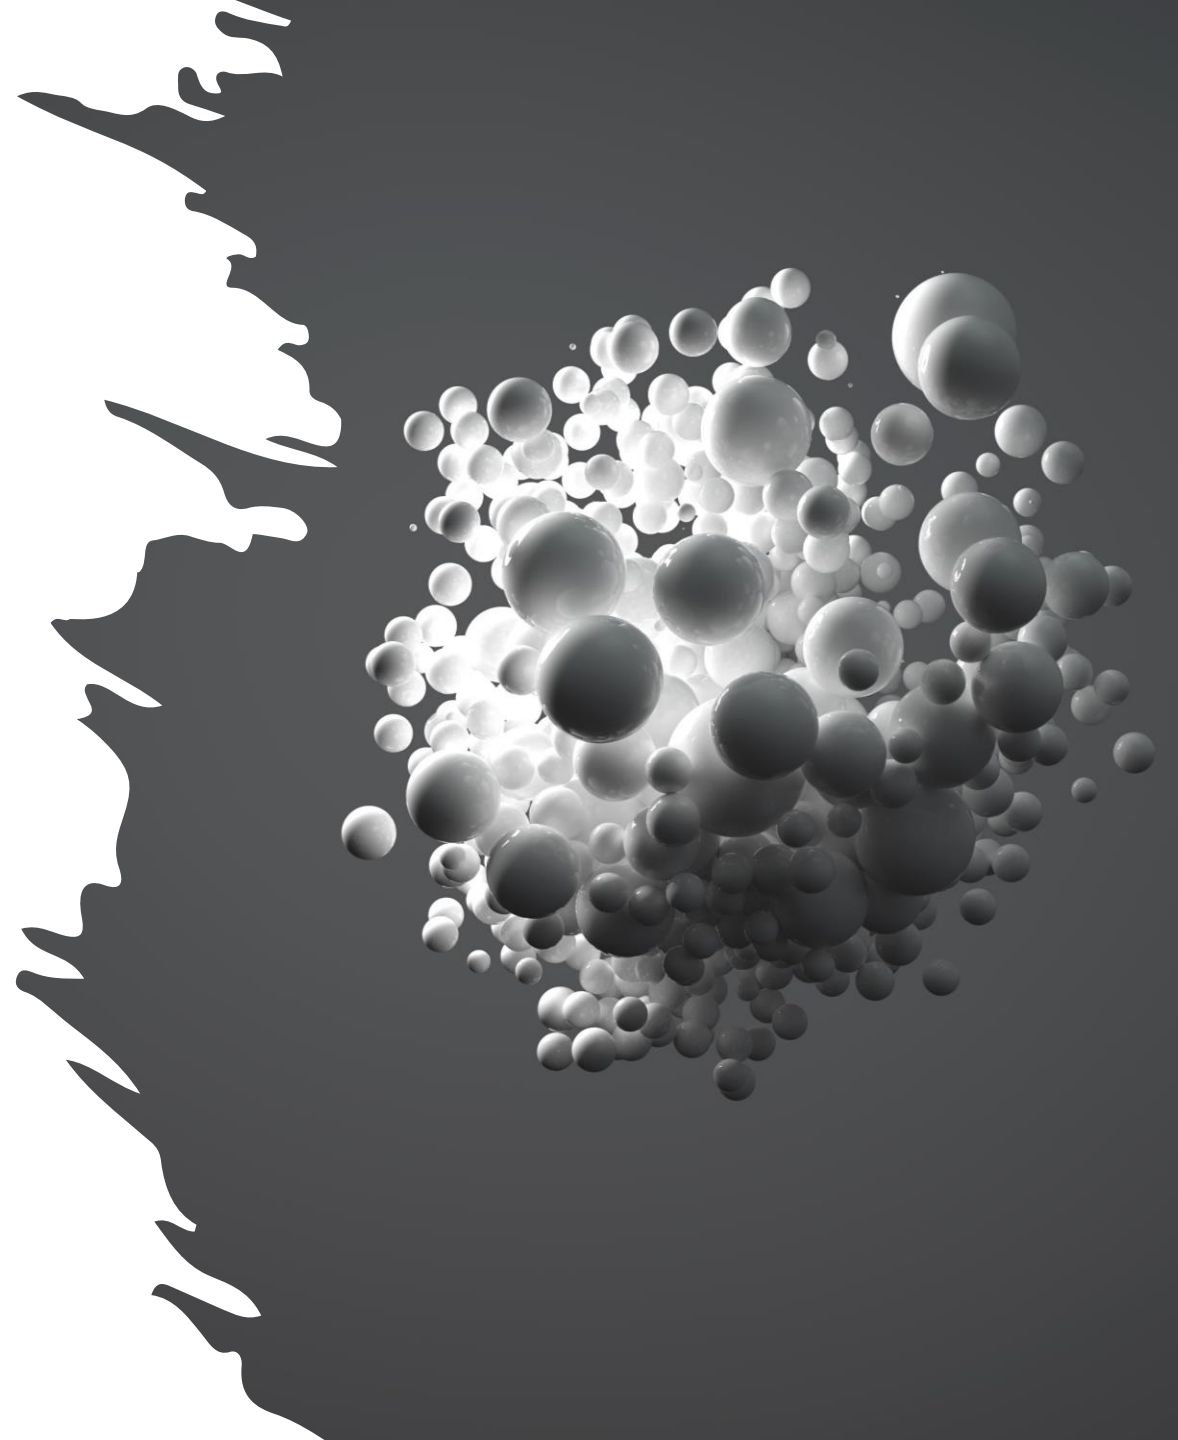

How do we get diseases?

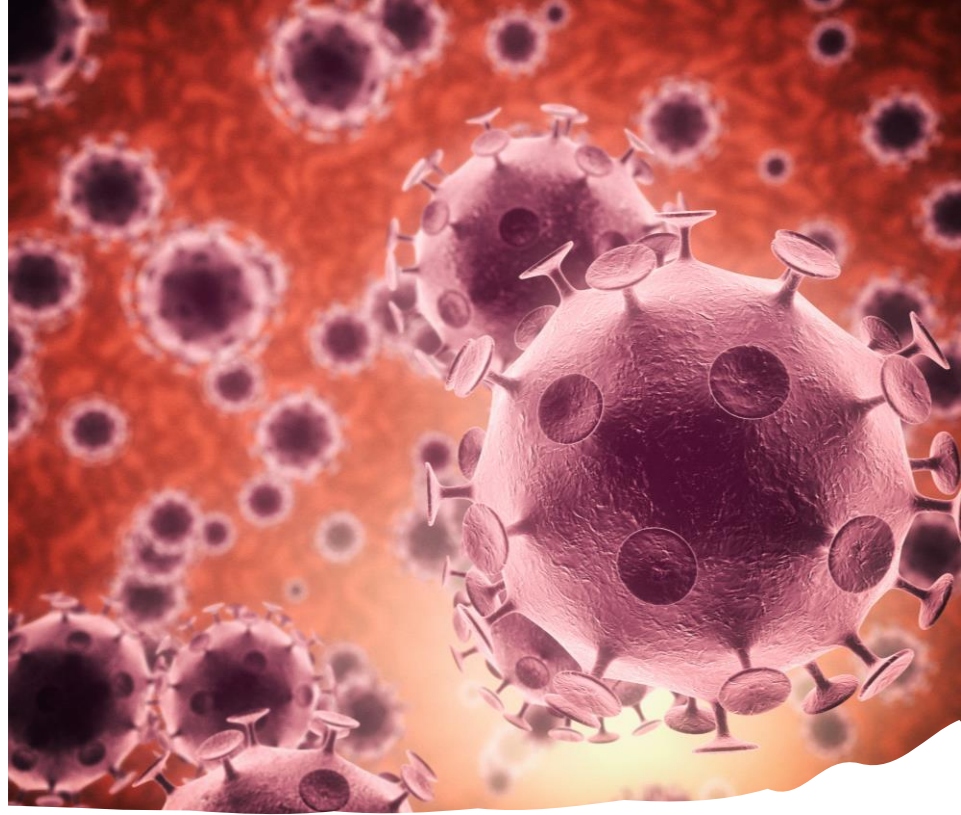

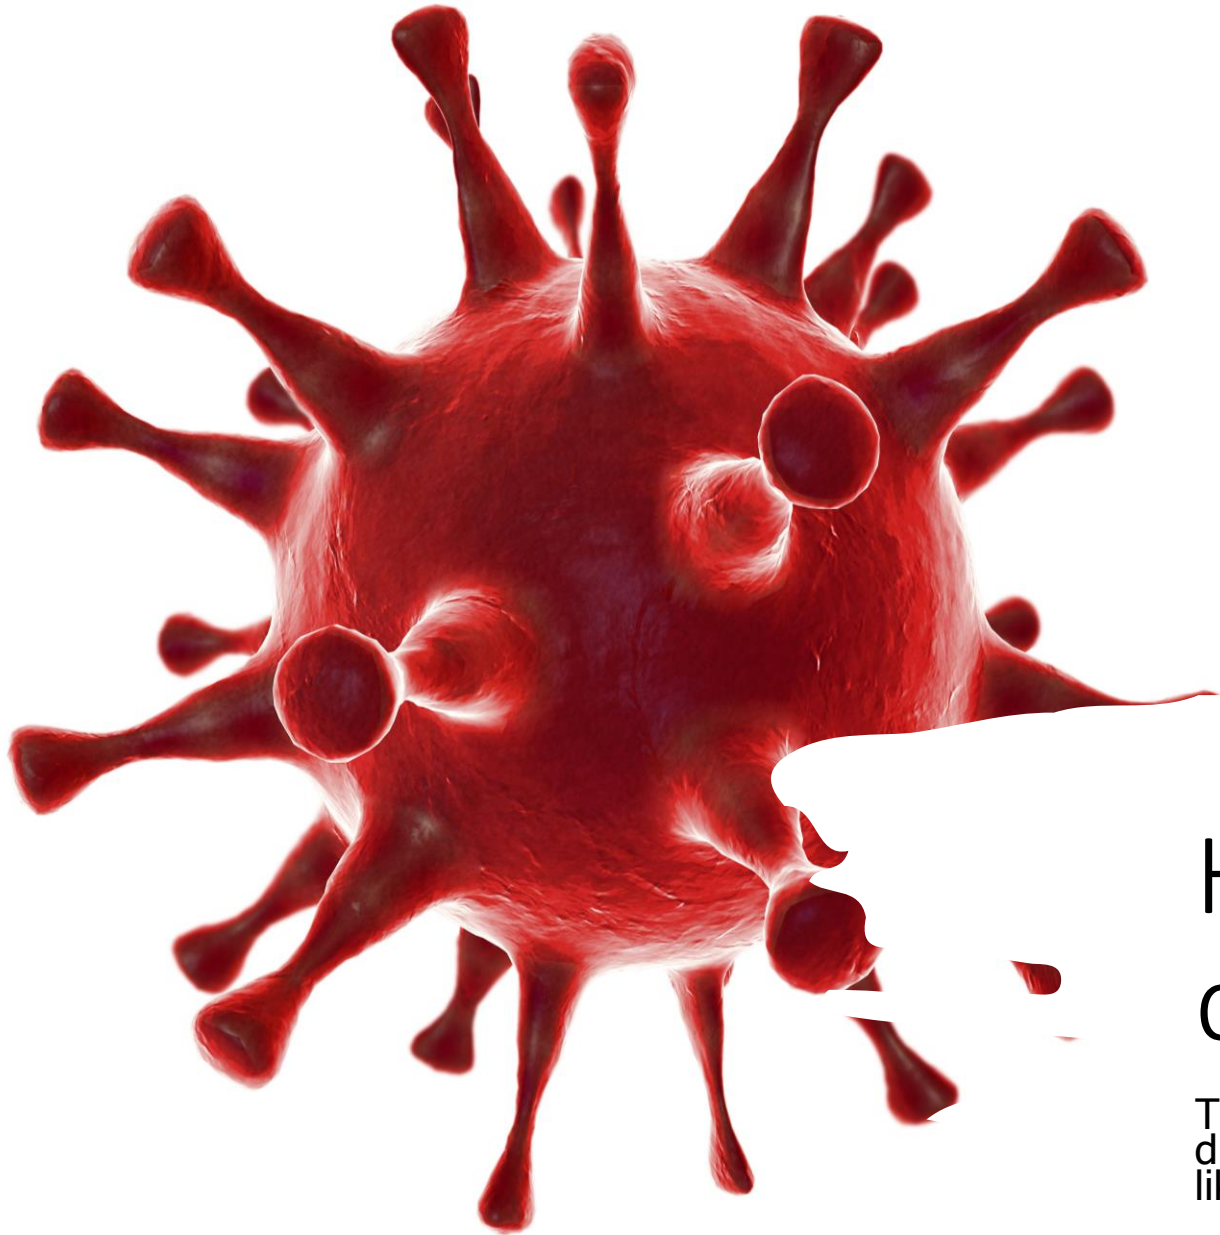

- We get diseases through the direct transfer of bacteria, viruses or other germs from one person to another.

How do diseases come to us?

- They come to us by caused by an infection, transmitted through person-to-person contact, animal-to-person contact, or from the environment or other media.

How do we get rid of diseases?

There is no one defined path for getting rid of diseases. We make take different medicines like Antibiotics.

The End

